Erme Valley Riding for the Disabled- Peggy Douglas (tel. 07882286421, or 01752 894348.)

It's been a pleasure to turn the horses out without rugs in dry fields and to see them shed their winter coats (albeit leaving hair everywhere !) We are fast approaching the competition season - and we're gearing up for the South West Region Competitions in both Show Jumping and Dressage in May.

I was delighted this week to receive £3670 on behalf of Erme Valley from th local Coop campaign in Ivybridge. Thanks to those loyal customers.

We are looking forward to the imminent arrival of a new horse direct from Ireland We are hoping he will be as successful as the lovable and versatile 'Boy' who als travelled across the Irish Sea.

Anyone have any spare gloss paint they wouldn't mind donating? It's that jum painting time of year again!

The end of the spring term saw the children explore the grounds of Ugborough House through the much-anticipated Easter egg hunt. The children also brought their own toy ducks and boats, labelled with their names, to race down the stream (with some handy net-work from the adults attending to retrieve the vessels before they went to sea!). Mervyn the 'music man', who visits pre-school weekly to deliver original interactive songs through his mobile Musikgarten, also attended. So, the children, parents and staff were treated to an outdoor recital. Thanks goodness the rain held off. Thanks again to Matt and Emily Fairclough for kindly letting us use their beautiful grounds.

Returned, with stories of their Easter break, the children are now relishing the onset of spring and making the most of the seasonal changes as they unfold. Village walks, where they have used information books to identify wild flowers, such as primroses and lesser celandines, compliment the children's Forest School which is now in full swing. At these weekly sessions, the children enjoy learning through outdoor activities connected with nature.

Our recent Race Night fundraiser was a big success, making £1429, which will help facilitate and sustain these enriching experiences for the children. We are very grateful to everyone who helped set up, staffed the event and catered. If you were able to get a ticket we hope you had a great evening, and thank you for your generosity.

Our annual summer fundraiser, Ugfest returns on Saturday 17th June.

It's sure to be an evening you won't want to miss - tickets will be on sale soon so save the date!

Cycling members wanted for the Yealm Rouleurs-Pete Stevens

Have you ever wanted to ride in a group, make new friends and improve your fitness and bike skills?

Who we are- The Yealm Rouleurs are a social bike club with about 20 members. The club is nearly 10 years old and is looking for new members, male and female. What we do- We ride every Saturday morning for 30-60 miles with a coffee and cake stop en route. Typical rides are around the South Hams, on Dartmoor and into Cornwall. The average speed is 14-15 mph. Members need a good working road bike to take part. There are no fees or formality, it is just casual and hopefully fun. Getting involved- We meet every Saturday, outside the Yealmpton Post Office at 8 a.m. then ride to Ermington and meet other riders in the Ermington school car park at 8.20 then set off on the ride.

We also run taster sessions once a month on the 2nd Wednesday night and 2nd Saturday morning of the month. For more info check out our Facebook page fb.me/yealmrouleurs

Community Cycle Events in May and June

Following on from its recent successful community cycle events, local sustainability group PL:21 Transition Town Initiative has joined with Sustrans and neighbouring Sustainable South Brent and has just announced the next of a series of guided bike rides throughout 2017.

Each ride in 2017 will have a theme for added interest while others will be micro adventures to discover lesser known lanes and some the beautiful scenery locally. Sustrans wants to encourage mums and dads to bring their children while people on electric bikes are welcome.

The next ride on 14^{th} May will be our second visit to Hannahs at Ivybridge, home to a School, Respite Centre, Community Hub and Children's Home.

The guided bike ride on 4th June is a challenge ride 50 miles long and climbs over 5,000ft. At an easy pace, it will discover some of Dartmoor's finest scenery ranging from hidden river valleys, ancient woodlands and crossing the high moors. There is a choice of starts from the Watermark Centre, Ivybridge at 9 a.m. or The Old School Community Centre, South Brent at 9.45 a.m. The ride will follow scenic lanes mostly on the National Cycle Network with stunning views looking over South Hams and Dartmoor. A back up car will be provided as we don't want anyone to be left behind.

The rides will stop for refreshments on route. Normally these rides are free however we asking a £15 donation to Sustrans for the event on 4th June. To find out more about any of the events please contact Graham Wilson on grahamwilson200@gmail.com or visit www.pl21.weebly.com.

Rainfall at Shellwood Hill George Arnison

During March I recorded 146.5mm (just under 6") of rain at Shellwood Hill. Nothing particularly dramatic, but the wettest month for over a year, and quite a lot more than the 96mm average for March over the last 8 years. By comparison the last four Marches have been 114.0mm (2016), 58.0mm (2015), 102.5mm (2014) and 161mm (2013).

Beryl's Bookworms - Norma Roe

Simsion. His creation- Don Tillman- is a highly intelligent Associate Professor of Genetics with a lifelong difficulty with social rituals, highly rigi scheduling, and an unusual way of thinking and talking. Although not stated, h almost certainly has Asperger's Syndrome. He has never been on a second dat and has convinced himself that he is not wired for romance. But then a dear of neighbour states that he would make a good husband and so he decides he will solv 'the Wife Problem' in the same orderly, evidence based manner that he approache all things. He creates a questionnaire that will filter out all unsuitable women an thus find the perfect wife.

Our April book was The Rosie Project, a debut novel by Graeme

Then into his life sweeps the unconventional Rosie, a graduate student who work part time in a gay bar, who is looking for her biological father. As Don helps he with this quest, his safe, orderly life is thrown into chaos as he realises tha against all the odds, he is falling in love with her.

We had a very lively discussion as we were let into Don's world. He narrates th story in the first person and so as readers, we are able to immediately realise the not everyone thinks and sees things in the same way. Most of us found Do interesting and charming, and the situations he found himself in often very funnibut some were irritated by him. The story was first created as a screen play an most of us felt it would make a great film. Some however thought that it was to obviously written with this in mind. It certainly got us all thinking! Score- an average of 3.75 out of 5.

(N.B. There is a sequel for those who want to know what happened next).

Expression of Interest -Ugborough Church Bell Headstock Inscriptions Anthony Lugger

As a result of the fantastic support of the community, we are now in a position to place the contract for the bells to be refurbished and agree the scope of work. As part of the refurbishment the present oak headstocks are to be replaced with hollow cast iron headstocks and there will be an opportunity for some families, condividuals, to have an inscription embossed on the headstocks. You may be part a family that has lived and worked in the parish of Ugborough for many years a you may feel an affinity to living in the village and the surrounding area. It may be an idea to discuss this proposal with your immediate and extended family, if you swish, to see what their feelings are. Whatever your reasons, if you would like the put forward your family's name to be recorded on the bell headstocks, for generations to come, please contact Anthony Lugger (anthonylugger@me.con 07836 624588) for further details.

Your Stars Tonight. "I am afraid I am going to harden my heart" announces the steamed dietor. I feel a pang of fear - is she going to suggest that I am removed to a Residential Home as I am becoming too much of a burden to her? But then she reveals that silver campervans are so yesterday and what we need is fresh new metallic blue one so that we can turn heads on camping fields across the western hemisphere.

Poor Reggie - cast aside after faithfully serving us for 8 years. He clung uncomplainingly to the cliff top at Land's End in a Force 9 gale, quietly shared the midnight sun at the Arctic Circle, faced down the Mafiosi in Taranto and shrugged off the late spring snow showers at Innsbruck. It's a harsh competitive world and as they say in today's corporate speak, "he has been released from his contract". The good news is that after an extensive vetting and in-depth interview process we found a nice couple from Dartmouth and were able to give them the privilege of wandering the byways with him as we have done.

This leads me to astronomical wanderers - comets - those unpredictable visitors from outer space. There are currently two relatively bright comets visible with binoculars in the midnight sky, "C/2015 V2 Johnson" and the splendidly endowed "41P/Tuttle-Giacobini-Kresak". Having said that, they remained stubbornly invisible to me, what with an exceptionally overcast March, followed by clear skies spoilt by a glaring moon that bleached out everything in the night sky. Eventually I tracked them down using the "Comet Chasing" website which provides detailed star charts showing the daily position of all current comets. With binoculars both turned out to be little more than faint smudges of haze against the background stars.

Comet "Johnson" is a true cosmic wanderer who has come from far beyond Pluto and after brightening to a maximum in June this year it will zip around the sun and slingshot back out into the depths of interstellar space on a hyperbolic orbit from which it will never return. It has been moving very slowly against the background stars in the constellation of Hercules for the last two months.

The other comet (let's just call it 41P/TGK) is a much more local wanderer based near Jupiter and has been observed on its visits around the sun several times since Tuttle first saw it in 1858. A few years ago it got tangled up in Jupiter's gravity and its orbit was dramatically changed so it now pops round to see us every 5 years. It is passing quite close to the earth (about 20 million kilometres away) and so from our perspective it is sprinting across the sky - in April it began in the constellation of the Plough and by the beginning of May it will be in the vicinity of Vega in the Constellation of the Lyre - so it has travelled nearly half way across the sky.

I feel the wander lust coming on - it's time to get back on the road again.

Ugborough Sustainable Saturdays -Sarah Scanlon

What a wonderful USS we had on Easter Saturday! The village hall was full t bursting point and both Producers and purchasers alike went away with smilir faces. It was so good to see so many people catching up and spending time to hav a drink and a sit down. USS objectives have clearly been met for providing a spac for skilful producers to sell locally made, high quality goods and for people to hav somewhere to purchase, and meet socially.

The Bring and Buy table is continuing to be successful and during the last month we have all raised £250 for the Bracken ward at Derriford to purchase items t make young people's stay a little more bearable when having treatment for cance Previous good causes benefitted from your generosity have included, The Paris Newsletter, The Bell fund, The Village Hall (chairs), the Parish Website and th locally based charity Chernobyl Children's Life Line.

Thank you to Kate Brampton who runs the table so efficiently.

For the next couple of months we will be raising money for the Village Hall, as w would like to see the hatch raised to allow easier access to our wonderfurefreshments served at USS.

If you would like a local charity to benefit from the Bring and Buy table please le one of the committee members know.

The dates for USS in May are 13th and 27th. Pick up a flyer from the coffee table at the next USS with all the dates on for the year so that you do not miss one!

Maintenance arrangements in Ugborough focussed the Parish Council's attention at the April Parish Council Meeting. Ugborough Square is looking rather sad, and the Parish Council will be arranging for the weeds to be cleared - it was also suggested that those living in houses overlooking the square may also get involved in cleaning it up (after all, they would benefit from a tidier outlook). Another issue is the drain at Lutterburn, which keeps filling up with silt, and which the Parish Council lengthsman keeps on clearing - which is costly.

Defibrillators are now located at Ugborough Village Hall, Bittaford Community Hc and Moorhaven bus shelter – and, amazingly, they are all displayed on Google Maps

The travellers at Hillhead are a regular agenda item, and this time, th Department for Communities & Local Government 'Planning policy for travelle sites' was discussed. This requires that the Local Plan should identify five year worth of 'deliverable' traveller sites, with broad locations for growth for th following five and, where possible, 10 years. The Plymouth & South West Devc Joint Local Plan 2014-2034 has not met this requirement and the Parish council responding to their consultation by identifying this oversight.

A bus service from Ugborough & Bittaford to Ivybridge is being offered by th Ivybridge & District Community Transport Association, who is proposing that: '... there was sufficient interest propose to run a Section 19 service from Ugboroug at 8.45 a.m. and Bittaford at about 8.50 a.m. into Ivybridge School & Ivybridg town centre for anyone without their own transport, aimed primarily at Schochildren once they are no longer entitled to travel on the official school bus bualso open to anyone who does not otherwise have transport. We would envisage return service from Ivybridge at 3.40 p.m. to Bittaford & Ugborough. It would be a section 19 service so would need to be booked in advance although regulc passengers could as with our other ring & ride services block book in advance (have a standing booking) and cancel if required. We would envisage the charge being feach way.'

A letter from our Priest in Charge- Rev'd David Sayle

During this month, the Mission Community, will join Churches throughout the world in the Archbishops' initiative, 'Thy Kingdom Come'. It runs from Ascension Day (May 25th) to Pentecost (June 4th). From the late fourth century Ascension Day has been remembered as the time when Jesus has commissioned his disciples to continue his work. He promises the gift of the Holy Spirit, and then he is no longer among them in the flesh. The ascension is therefore closely connected with the theme of mission. The arrival of the promised gift of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost completes and crowns the Easter Festival. Over time this period has become known as opportunity to pray for the life of Church to be empowered by God's Holy Spirit.

As a Mission Community we have come to the end of all our Annual Meetings and we begin to wait upon God and discern how he is calling us to support, encourage and nurture our communities. With this in mind, I invite you to join with me in this prayer initiative, which in our Mission Community, will begin with an Ascension Day service at 7 p.m. on Thursday 25th May at Halwell Church and then for the next ten days, with the encouragement of Bishop Robert, our Churches will be open to allow time and space for people to pray.

Also a short time of prayer will be held at 7 p.m. each day in cur churches culminating with a Pentecost Praise at 4.30 p.m. in Diptford Parish Hall on Sunday 4th June or if you prefer you could attend a special Exeter Cathedral service at 6.30 p.m. on that same Sunday.
